STOOD IN SOUND OF GROWLING STORM

Governor Nash Earnestly Addressed a Great Assemblage.

OUR RELIGION AND EDUCATION

He Declared to Be the Foundation of the State--Tribute to Patriotism and the Lessons Old Soldiers Teach--Laying First M. E. Church Auditorium Cornerstone.

Facing an audience in sympathy with every word he uttered, and talking with an earnestness demonstrating his deep conviction, while lightning flashed and the growling of deep-toned thunder bespoke the coming of a summer storm, Hon. George K. Nash dedicated the cornerstone of the First M. E. church auditorium Friday afternoon.

It was a scene few of the great crowd so fortunate as to be present will ever forget. The front of the old structure was draped in the brilliant colors of the nation, that Old Glory under which the distinguished guest of honor served as a soldier in the Civil war. The platform, spacious and well built, occupied the greater part of the space between building and the street. Men, women and children filled the open ground, spread out into the street, covered the lawns opposite and filled the verandas at every residence in the immediate vicinity. Chairs had been placed on lawns and here some of the crowd sat, but the greater part remained standing during the ceremonies. Walnut street by common consent was filled with carriages whose occupants were near enough to hear every word.

On the stand were members of council and other officials, the official board of the church, the choir under the direction of Robert Boyd, and a large number of ministers. Among the latter were: Rev. Dr. Hunt, Rev. Mr. Hamilton, Rev. Dr. Fisher, Rev. Mr. Weber, Rev. Mr. Moody, Rev. Mr. Sever, and Rev. Mr. Weiske. Of Coshocton: Rev. B. D. Jones, Conesville; Rev. Dr. Jones, Iowa; Rev. Dr. Johnson, presiding elder of the Mt. Vernon district; Rev. Mr. Snyder, Keene; Rev. Mr. Castle, Mohawk; Rev. Mr. Lewis, Trinway and Rev. Mr. Fees, Kansas.

Soon after 3 o'clock the sound of music coming from Walnut announced the approach of Governor Nash. His escort was Richard Lanning post of the Grand Army, and the veterans stepped briskly forward to the commands of their leader, Commander George Sykes. The governor, accompanied by R. A. Powelson, Mayor E. C. Rinner and Warner Hay, the reception committee, dismounted a carriage and walked from the hotel. He entered the church at a side door, and walking down the platform took his seat with the committee and Mr. J. F. Meek near the speakers' stand, draped in the Stars and Stripes.

When the applause had died away Rev. D. B. Jones read the familiar hymn "How Firm a Foundation," and it was rendered by the choir in splendid voice. The people had risen, and Rev. Dr. Hunt gave the following beautiful invocation:

"Almighty and most merciful God, we worship thee as creator, redeemer and spirit of truth and grace, and invoke thy divine blessing upon these thy servants. We know thou dwellest not in temples made with hands, but all along the ages thou hast said to thy people as thou didst to the prophet Haggai: 'Build the house, and I will take pleasure in it.' Prosper the work of building this house. Give this pastor and those setting their hands to this work all needful wisdom and strength for their arduous task. Let this ever be a house of God, showing forth abundantly the grace of God; the gathering place of godly men and women, ever seeking the things that are honest, true, peaceable, and of good report, where business life, the excellencies of good citizenship and the spirit of a true fraternity shall be set forth and maintained. And now help us in the further exercises of this occasion. Inspire every utterance and every act and especially be mouth and wisdom to thy distinguished servant, the governor of our highly favored state, and may his words conduce to a larger measure of true piety and real patriotism in all that hear. Fill us all with thy love and fit us for every work given us to do and gather us at last by thy grace into Heaven we ask for Christ's sake. Amen."

Mr. Meek in introducing Governor Nash said:

My friends: This is a proud day for Coshocton Methodism. It gives tangible evidence of substantial growth. It is a proud day for Coshocton citizenship because it shows its Christian character. The building of this church is synonymous with good citizenship. It is a proud day for us all because we recognize ourselves as a part of a great Christian commonwealth presided over by a Christian gentleman whom I have the honor to introduce to you. Ladies and gentlemen, Governor Nash.

SPEECH OF GOVERNOR NASH.

Religion and Education the Cornerstone of Our Great Ohio.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: I beg to thank you for the kind reception you have given me this afternoon. I assure you it is a great one hundred years old it has grown from a wilderness to be a great commonwealth. We are proud of its schools, its agricultural development, its great cities with their countless manufactories, but proudest of all of its splendid citizenship which believes in the maintenance of law and order. It is a good thing to stop and think of the foundation on which our state rests, the celebrated ordinance of 1787. It is founded on two great truths. Our forefathers said religion and education are necessary for the happiness and prosperity of mankind. Therefore it enjoins upon us the duty to maintain these institutions in Ohio. Our forefathers did what they could for us. Their children were faithful in following their example, and religion and education have been maintained. This is the reason we are free and happy today.

We find the cities of Ohio dotted with places of worship. Schools are everywhere, and because we have religion and education we are wonderfully prosperous. I beg of you do everything you can to make the precept of our forefathers good, and in the years to come our people will be greater, more prosperous and better citizens than they have been in the last century.

It is impossible to say that the men and women of the future will be more patriotic than those of the past. I was delighted when I found I was to be escorted here by the faithful patriots who maintained the institutions of the Nation from 1861 pleasure for me to be with you. It is a pleasure for me to congratulate you on the great work you have undertaken in the building of this church. It is I understand, one of the oldest in your city and the membership has increased until it is necessary to enlarge in order that you may accommodate more people. I congratulate you on this splendid progress. I congratulate you on this growth because it makes your city and your county better. I feel like congratulating our great state of Ohio because our citizenship will be greater, more patriotic and better by this progress. We are proud of our state. Barely to 1861. To these we owe a debt that can never be repaid. (Applause.) In uttering this sentiment I do not refer to their sufferings or their heroism. I refer to the splendid citizenship they have maintained since the war. (Applause.) They have done a greater work in the years that have passed than they did during the days of peril and danger. (Applause.) Who can tell what good they have done? They have taught the lesson of patriotism. To their children they have told and retold those stories we know until the young men and women of Ohio love the old flag and are as ready to defend its honor as they. They always favor the maintenance of law and order, and have been the main support and glory of the Republic. I am glad they join with you in laying the foundation of this church edifice. I have become interested these last three years in the patriotism of Ohio and the country. I looked to the future and feared regarding its stability, but I want to say to you now that my fear has been dispelled by the splendid religious and educational institutions we have and the patriotism sown among our people by the old soldiers.

It was my privilege the 15th of last May to be in the city of Indianapolis. There they were to dedicate a magnificent monument erected to the soldiers and sailors of that state. They sent out from Indiana during the great struggle 154 regiments, and upon the occasion of the dedication an effort was made to gather together all old soldiers in the commonwealth. That morning I saw those 7,000 men, some bearing the old banners under which they had fought. It was a day of patriotism, and the people who saw it will never forget it. At sundown they carried back to the capitol from which they are never to go again, the tattered objects of their patriotic affection. That scene could not but arouse the love of country in every breast. Many kissed the old banners as they parted for the last time. Tears rolled down cheeks that had never paled on the field of battle. Such scenes are constantly occurring throughout our country. Patriotism is promoted, our land grows and prospers while our religion and civilization are being carried to the uttermost parts of the earth.

Ladies and gentlemen, I ought not to detain you longer. I want to wish for you and for the people who make this advancement the happiness and prosperity that God is wont to confer upon all of His chosen. I thank you. (Applause.)

PLACED IN POSITION.

Committee Firmly Set The Stone With The Assistance of Masons.

During the entire time Governor Nash had been speaking a great black cloud had been rolling up from the west and the electrical display had been brilliant. Sharp flashes of lightning cut the sky and many of the audience hastened to places of shelter, fearing a sudden downpour of rain. It was necessary to place the stone in position as soon as possible.

Captain John M. Compton stepped from his place on the stage to the front. In his arms he bore a sealed copper box 6x8x12. It was to be placed in the cornerstone, and briefly he announced the nature of its contents. It was then handed to E. O. Selby, R. M. Temple and S. M. Williams, the committee, who placed it in the cornerstone.

Mr. J. C. Fisher echoed the sentiment of the entire audience when he announced that it was certainly an honor to have Governor Nash present on such an occasion, and moved a vote of thanks asking all who favored it to respond by waving their handkerchiefs. The response was instantaneous and the cheer a hearty one, as the air suddenly filled with fluttering bits of silk and linen. The governor was pleased, and acknowledged the salute by bowing right and left.

Rev. Dr. Toland announced that while the choir sang "Rock of Ages" the stone would be placed, and the audience moved to the north where the handsome brown stone was ready. A derrick stood above, and at the word it was lowered. The mortar had been placed on the wall and the stone fitted its place with the precision designed by the builder. Samuel M. Michael, of Keene, the man who representing Mr. Cochran who donated the stone, cut and set it in position.

The storm was ready to break and the people hastened home, some entering the lecture room of the old church building where refreshments were served. A few minutes later water came in torrents and the stone that will stand as a memorial in years yet unborn was capsize by the rain from heaven.

THE CORNERSTONE.

It is a Handsome Piece of Work and Contains Articles of Interest.

The cornerstone is a handsome piece of work, having been donated to the church by Mr. Cochran and prepared by Manuel McMichael, a well known resident of Keene. It is set in the center of the front wall of the auditorium facing South Fourth, and will occupy a much more prominent position than if it had been set at a corner.

The box contains the names of President Roosevelt and Governor Nash together with the names of the state, county, township and city officials. A list of the members of the church, of which there are 950, members of the Sunday school, church officers, Sunday school officers, officers of the missionary societies, officers of Richard Lanning post and Woman's Relief corps, members of the choir, and officials of the Epworth League. A copy of each newspaper printed in Coshocton was also placed in the box. In years to come when the box is opened these documents will be of interest to the people then living in Coshocton.

THE NEW AUDITORIUM.

It Will Seat 1200 People and Will be Complete in Every Way.

The auditorium will be a model church building and will be complete in every way. The exterior will be handsome, as the cut in this issue of THE AGE shows, and will be an ornament to the city. Connected as it will be with the old church building it will present an imposing appearance.

The interior arrangement will be all that can be asked. Opera chairs will provide comfortable seats, arranged in semicircles fronting the pulpit. A gallery with chair loft and room for consultation will by no means detract from the appearance, and the aisles will be wide and roomy. The old church building will be used for smaller gatherings than the regular church services, while the basement of the auditorium will be used for festivals and gatherings of like character.

Rev. Dr. Toland, pastor of the church, is a veteran in the service, and one of the most prominent Methodist Episcopal divines in Ohio. He has a long and brilliant record as a minister, while his business ability has added largely to the resources of the church in this state. Hundreds have professed conversion under his ministry, and his work in Coshocton has been crowned with great success. The congregation has been largely increased and the finances placed in splendid condition. He is serving his seventh year as pastor of the First church, and his popularity with the people of the city is only equalled by the affection given him by his own people.

BURNED A BARN.

Other Barns Were Struck and Damaged by Lightning.

The storm that broke over the city Friday afternoon caused damage in the country to the north and east, while its force was felt in Coshocton. Keene and White Eyes townships suffered most although the storm was general throughout this section.

Frank McCullough living in White Eyes township two miles from Avondale, was the principal sufferer. His barn was struck by lightning and burned in a short time. The loss is heavy.

The barn owned by Alexander Adams to Keene township was struck and damaged. This is its second experience. The barn has a tin roof.

Matthew Crawford was at the home of a neighbor near Warsaw and when the storm was at its height they were standing on the veranda. Lightning hit the corner and both were shocked. A rail was killed in the same neighborhood.

The barn at the home of Mrs. Sam Ingle on upper Chestnut was struck by lightning and somewhat damaged. Persons in that vicinity felt the shock.

The rainfall was exceptionally heavy and streets were flooded, but no particular damage resulted.

Two cows on the farm of William Maxwell, near Roscoe, were killed during the storm.

HORSES IN A HOLE.

Soft Place on Upper Chestnut the Cause of Trouble.

There was trouble on upper Chestnut this morning. The foundation of a gas main had been filled and tamped as well as possible, but it was soft and three horses experienced trouble in crossing. The horse attached to Sam Gable's delivery wagon went in, but was rescued after hard work on the part of the driver and workmen who are employed grading the street.

Heimreich's oil wagon experienced greater difficulty. The horse sank into the earth soaked by the heavy rain, and it was some time before it was taken out. The condition of the road was such that for a time fears were felt for the safety of the animal.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

Pleasant Day Spent By Members of The Party at The Fairground.

A number of leading prohibitionists of the Seventeenth congressional district assembled at the fairground Friday and spent a pleasant day. An enjoyable program was rendered, speakers from a distance being present.

Addresses were made by Fred A. Victor, of New York, State Chairman H. L. Case, of Columbus, and Mr. Umstadt, of Wooster.

A. L. Matthews was elected county chairman, and Rev. Mr. Meekin, of Keene, secretary. Because of the absence of members of the committee no nomination was made for congress. The convention formed what is styled an alliance and will take out a charter. Another meeting will be held August 1.

HANDSOME MACHINE.

J. P. Forbes' New Automobile Makes Good Time.

J. P. Forbes has received a new automobile and with some of his friends has been trying it on the streets of the city. It is a handsome machine and carries four comfortably. When handled by Mr. Forbes it is capable of high speed but has by no means been given its limit in Coshocton. It is the best and most improved automobile ever seen in the city.

Waylaid and Murdered.
Atoka, I. T., July 19.—Near Stringtown Mrs. Daniel Grant, her daughter, Mrs. Jack Reeves, and a man named Nickles were waylaid and killed while returning from church. Mrs. Reeves was separated from her husband about eight months, and prior to that time the couple had lived with the Grant family. The identity of the murderer is not known.

PLUCKY BOER BOY.

Youthful De Wet Tells How He Thrashed an English Officer.
One of the most interesting of the released Boer captives was the late New York recently with a number of his fellow prisoners from the prison islands of Bermuda is Master M. J. De Wet, a twelve-year-old lad who does not look to be more than ten, says the New York Herald. An exceedingly handsome and manly little chap he is. He was dressed in knickerbockers and wore a sombrero which shaded blue eyes frank as they were fearless.

Master De Wet said he was no relative of his celebrated namesake as far as he knew. What he did know was that he had gone to the front with his older brother and the two had fought side by side until both were captured near Kimberley in September last. He had been in several fights, and the Mauser carbine which he carried had killed more of the enemy than he could count.

But the fight that he is most proud of is one that he had just before his release from captivity. It was with a young English subaltern, who, according to Master De Wet, had called him names. So one day, according to the youthful narrator, they adjourned to a vacant space and had it out.

"Did you thrash him?" he was asked.
"Well, he couldn't stand up to the time we left," was the modest reply.
"How old was your opponent?"
"About seventeen; but he wasn't much bigger than me," said the lad proudly.

Autumn Coats For Women.
The coats of all the costumes designed for early autumn are made long enough to come more than half way down the skirt, and the short jacket of last year and the year before is quite out of date, says Harper's Bazar. And yet, to show how capricious is fashion, an immensely smart little coat, double breasted and curved in at the sides. After all, the fashion which remains as many styles come and go is to the question of which style is becoming to the especial individual who is to wear it, and from all present indications the autumn and winter will not show any more definitely marked lines than did last year.

AMERICA'S PROGRESS

As Viewed by a Former High Japanese Official

FEARS A SETBACK IN NEAR FUTURE

Says the Commercial Energy of the Americans Far Surpasses Anything in Europe, but Thinks Too Much Business Is Being Transacted On Borrowed Capital.

Vienna, July 19.—Count Matsukata, the former minister of finance of Japan, who recently returned from a month's visit to the United States in an interview said:

"While I was deeply impressed with the tremendous energy of the Americans and their wonderful commercial development, I fear that the too rapid progress of the United States is likely to experience a serious setback in the near future."

"The commercial energy of the Americans," he continued, "incomparably surpasses anything in Europe. This is undoubtedly one of the principal causes of the economic progress of the United States. I perceive in many directions where European countries are already affected by American expansion, and I think it likely that they will be still more affected in the future, but America's progress has been so exceedingly rapid that I fear some hidden disaster. In my opinion too much business has been done on borrowed capital. This, coupled with the magnitude of the commercial operations common in the United States, will probably lead to a panic at the first untoward circumstance, such as a bad harvest or similar misfortune. While there are many strong banks in the United States, there are also many weak ones whose failure will render a crash inevitable. I fear that some of these banks are lending too much money to aid business enterprises."

"Another danger lies in the bank-note issues. While this is perfectly safe in theory, because they are protected by a deposit of government bonds, yet in time of panic there is considerable difference between negotiable paper and cash. Some of the most prominent financiers in America share these apprehensions, which leads me to hope that they, foreseeing the danger, will find means of averting it. If so, America's commercial progress will be even more remarkable than at present."

Count Matsukata has already visited London, Brussels, Paris, Berlin and Rome, and is now studying the financial and economic conditions of Austria-Hungary. He goes to St. Petersburg July 22, and expects to return to Japan via the Siberian railroad.

POPE DISPLEASED.

Signifies His Readiness to Treat With Judge Taft.

London, July 19.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says the pope is intensely displeased at the way in which the commission of cardinals has conducted the negotiations with Judge Taft in the matter of the friars in the Philippines. "I learn from an authoritative source," says the correspondent, "that, besides annulling the procedure of the commission of cardinals, the pope has summarily dissolved it, expressing his view that the American demands were reasonable and signifying his readiness to treat with Judge Taft personally."

To Keep Tab on Battleship.

Washington, July 19.—The navy department announced that the two battleships to be built under the authority of the last naval appropriation bill are to be named the Louisiana and Connecticut, and the two cruisers the Tennessee and Washington. The battleship to be built at the New York yard will be the Connecticut. Admiral Bowles has prepared an elaborate plan for keeping the accounts in connection with the cost of the Connecticut in such order that when she is finished comparisons can be made between the respective cost of building ships in government and private yards.

Trial of Naval Vessel.

Baltimore, July 19.—The torpedo boat destroyer Whipple, built by the Maryland Steel company, returned to Sparrow's Point from her official trial over the Barren island measured course. In every movement the vessel exceeded the contract requirements. The mile course was run at a speed of 29.44 knots and the highest speed attained was at the rate of 26 1/4 knots.

Favors Arbitration.

Chicago, July 19.—State legislation requiring corporations to submit to arbitration all industrial disputes with their employees, where the employees wish it, under penalty of forfeiture of charters in case of refusal, was advocated by Judge Murray F. Tuley in an address before the Illinois State Bar association here.

Donation of Illinois Miners.

Indianapolis, July 19.—The convention was informed by the Illinois delegation that the miners of that state have voted a donation of $50,000 to the cause of the anthracite strike. The money will be available at once.

Riot in Tennessee.

Knoxville, July 19.—News has been received here of a riot at Chicago, in Cumberland county, Tenn., which resulted in the death of two white men and two negroes and the wounding of a number of other persons.

Too Much Hard Work.
Oakland, Cal., July 19.—Rumors were flying thick and fast around town to the effect that Champion Jeffries was sick at his quarters as a result of overtraining. This gave rise to the report that Jeffries was out of condition and that he was laid up for repairs. It was pointed out that the champion is away below his normal weight. Trainer Delaney admits that Jeffries has worked too hard. Jeffries arose at 1 o'clock and showed up at the gymnasium at 2. He said: "I am not sick. I was tired after being at the theater. I have cut out my work and will just take gymnasium exercise. I'll be ready for the fight."

Advices Rebels to Surrender.

Panama, Colombia, July 19.—General Alvarado, who was president of the department of Panama during the Liberal administration, a notable leader of the Liberal party and the official who surrendered Panama to the United States marines in 1885, has published a patriotic article advising the revolutionists to accept the terms of peace offered them by President Marroquin. He says the welfare of future generations demands that the transfer of the canal be considered immediately by the Colombian government.

Veterans to Consolidate.

Washington, July 19.—The consolidation of the Spanish war veterans and the Spanish-American war veterans promises to be soon accomplished, after a dissension which has lasted several years. A committee of five members from each organization has been preparing a constitution and by-laws, and these will be submitted to the respective organizations for approval.

Morosi's Contribution.

Venice, July 19.—Giovanni P. Morosi, a descendant of an ancient family which has given Venice several doges, and who is now a wealthy banker of New York city, has sent $100,000 to help rebuild the Campanile. The contribution has created great emotion. When Mr. Morosi left Venice he was poor.

Overdue Bark Spoken.

San Francisco, July 19.—The French bark Brenon, out 157 days from New Castle, England, quoted on the reinstatement list at 25 per cent, and supposed to have gone down in a gale on the Atlantic ocean, has been spoken off port.

DRUNKEN HUSBAND

Attacks His Wife, and He and His Brother Are Killed.

Carbondale, Ill., July 19.—The Jambert brothers, who operated a small coal mine near Oraville, were both shot to death at their home by the wife of one of the men. They had returned about 11 o'clock intoxicated and the husband demanded his supper. Mrs. Jambert began to quarrel with him, and her husband began breaking the dishes and at last attacked her. Mrs. Jambert and her sister fled to a back room and locked the door. Her husband followed, broke in the door and renewed the assault whereupon the infuriated wife fired three shots into his body, one passing through his heart, causing almost instant death. The brother, who was a witness to the tragedy, took up his brother's quarrel and attempted to strike the woman, whereupon Mrs. Jambert emptied the two remaining chambers of the revolver into his body, inflicting a wound from which he died shortly afterward. The woman gave the alarm and surrendered to the officers. The coroner's jury exonerated the wife.

Charges Bad Faith.

Chicago, July 19.—Another strike of the freight handlers of Chicago may be called Sunday night. President Curran of the Freight Handlers' union has issued a call for a mass meeting of all the freight handlers in the city, to be held at that time, to take action on the refusal of four railroads to reinstate all the old men. He declared that when the settlement was made it was agreed with Frederic W. Job, chairman of the state board of arbitration, that all the old men were to be taken back when the strike was declared off. This, he says, the Santa Fe, Panhandle, Northwestern and Illinois Central railroads have not done, and unless they do so before the mass meeting Sunday night another walkout will be ordered.

Interstate Railway.

Pierre, S. D., July 19.—Articles of incorporation were filed for the Interstate Railway company, with headquarters at Canton, S. D. The capital stock of the company is $50,000, 000, and it is proposed to build a line of railway from Duluth, Minn., to Galveston, Tex. A South Dakota branch is to run up the Sioux valley into North Dakota, with a branch from Brookings to the Missouri river, near the line between North and South Dakota.

No Word From Tracy.

Seattle, Wash., July 19.—Not a word has been heard of Harry Tracy, the escaped convict, since he left the cabin on Sawyer's lake. Sheriff Cudde, who returned to Seattle with the most of his posse, refused absolutely to give out any information. It is believed he has received some news from his men and that he will go out again himself. A few guards were left on duty at Ravensdale, Covington and Auburndale.

Trade Conditions.
New York, July 19.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly trade review says: Settlement of numerous labor controversies and prospect of early agreements as to other struggles have greatly improved the industrial outlook, while agricultural conditions have steadily improved. As these have been the only unfavorable influences for some months, the prospects for active trade are decidedly encouraging. Preparations for unusually heavy fall sales are being made, and confidence grows stronger. Mills and furnaces that have been idle on account of the usual overhauling resumed as rapidly as needed repairs could be made. Financial conditions are sound, the mid-year dividend distributions producing no stringency, and speculation has been heavy for the season, both in securities and staples.

Won't Follow Advice After Paying For It.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle stimulant, such as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale at C. E. Anderson's Drug and Book Store No. 2 Forbes block.

Committee Will Urge a Ten Per Cent Assessment.

APPLICATION OF THE FUND DEBATED

President Mitchell's Recommendations Referred to a Special Committee. Half a Million Dollars Weekly Required to Support Men Now on Strike in Various Sections.

Indianapolis, July 19.—The recommendations of President Mitchell in regard to the management of the anthracite strike were referred to a special committee consisting of President Mitchell, Vice President Lewis, Secretary Wilson and the president of each district which is taking part in the convention. There is little doubt that the committee will urge the adoption of the recommendations and fixing the rate of assessment at 10 per cent or higher.

President Mitchell then spoke for the adoption of the recommendations made in his speech of Thursday. He told the convention that the strikes in West Virginia and elsewhere were being protected by the general organization under the regular assessments of the union, but that the assessment which was under discussion was necessary for the support of the anthracite strike alone, and should not be diverted from its purpose.

"It is possible that other strikes may come," he said, "and then, under the precedent which a general distribution of the fund to be raised would create, these later strikes could claim their share in the fund, and it would be so depleted as to fail entirely of its purpose."

Mr. Mitchell assured the convention that the strike in the Pittsburg district and all other strikes would be looked after without splitting up the fund for the anthracite men, and again urged the men to dismiss from their minds all thought of a general strike. His remarks were greeted with enthusiastic cheers.

A vote was taken on the Haskins amendment, and it was voted down by a decisive majority. This left before the convention the original motion for the adoption of the recommendations of the president. A number of amendments were then offered, and these were all pending, when Secretary Wilson offered an amendment that the matter be referred to a committee made up of the three highest officers of the national organization and the presidents of the districts represented in the convention. This prevailed, and an adjournment was taken.

At the conclusion of the session Secretary Wilson said: "It will cost $500,000 weekly to support all the men now on strike in the various districts. An assessment of $1 per week will bring in $250,000 a week; an assessment of 10 per cent upon each member of the union will result in about the same sum. This will leave us $250,000 to raise each week from outside sources, and from the promises and offers that have been made us we are confident that we will be able to do this."

Attack on Missionaries.
Washington, July 19.—Details of an assault committed on some Methodist missionaries in Korea by Japanese coolies about the 15th of last month have reached here. As Bishop Moore of the Methodist church was en route to the town of Soowon to dedicate a church his party was attacked by Japanese coolies who were building the railroad from Seoul to Fusan. With the bishop were his young daughter and Messrs. Appenzeller and Swearer, and all of the party suffered. The bishop's pith helmet saved his skull from a crushing blow; Appenzeller was struck down by a blow from a club, and Swearer, the other missionary, was struck with a piece of cordwood, which gashed his head across the forehead to the bone and may have permanently injured one eye.

To Maintain Prices.
Pittsburg, July 19.—The American Windowglass company issued a circular to the manufacturers now in the independent company and other windowglass makers calling upon them to unite with the American and Federation companies in shortening the length of the fire and in maintaining the price of windowglass. The arguments used in the circular are practically the same as those brought forward at the Cleveland convention last week, when it was decided that the blast for 1902-3 should begin not earlier than Oct. 16, and should continue not longer than eight months.

Ninety Blocks Burned.
Guayaquil, Ecuador, July 19.—The fire which broke out here at 9 o'clock Wednesday night was extinguished after having destroyed 90 blocks on some of the principal streets of the city. The loss on buildings and merchandise is estimated at $3,000,000. The burned buildings include the custom house and railway station. The city is without gas and the only water to be had is that taken from the river Guayas.

Illinois Tragedy.
Paducah, Ky., July 19.—Sam Faughan, 30, a lineman, attempted to take Jack Abbott of Pope county, Ill., away from some ladies, who charged that he was using insulting language, at Metropolis, Ills. Faughan was shot twice and killed by Abbott. Before he fell he took Abbott's pistol and shot him once. Abbott will recover and is in jail.

TORRID WEATHER

Causes Several Prostrations and One Death in Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, July 19.—Though relieved by thunderstorms, the weather has been oppressively hot for two days. Eight or 10 prostrations from heat and one death have been reported. The fatal case was that of Michael O'Neill, a roofer, who died after being taken to a hospital.

Held to Grand Jury.

Zanesville, July 19.—Former County Commissioner Albert C. Swope and Liverman James H. Warne of Cambridge had their preliminary hearing before Justice John A. Green here on the charge of criminally assaulting Miss Ida Hildebrand of Byesville, and were bound over in $500 each.

Saved From Poorhouse.

Shelby, O., July 19.—J. Fulton of West Salem has come to the aid of Palmer Fulton, the grandson of Robert Fulton, the inventor, thereby preventing him from going to the county infirmary on account of destitute circumstances.

Snakes in Chillicothe.

Chillicothe, O., July 19.—A number of poisonous snakes have been killed on lawns in the very heart of the city. They were mostly of the rattler and copperhead variety. These lawns are within two squares of the courthouse.

Boy Killed.

Canton, O., July 19.—Warren Stemer, 17, was killed at the Portland Diamond Cement works by being caught in a screw conveyor. He was horribly mangled before his fellow workmen could release him.

Crew Appointed.

Columbus, O., July 19.—Governor Nash announced the appointment of W. B. Crew of McConnelsville to the supreme bench, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Marshall J. Williams.

Unlimited Mail.

Upper Sandusky, O., July 19.—A postal card that has been on the road from St. Louis, Mo., to Upper Sandusky since Jan. 23, 1886, has just been received by C. D. Hare.

Boiler Let Go.

Continental, O., July 19.—Engineer Charles Mathers and Fireman Smith were killed by the explosion of a boiler of a locomotive on the Clover Leaf road.

Death of Former State Senator.

Bowling Green, O., July 19.—Hon. John R. Hankey died at his home here, after an operation for abdominal trouble.

Railroad Men Killed.

Rhinclander, Wis., July 19.—In a head-on collision of freight trains near Pembine on the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie road Charles Johnson and William E. Raymond, engineers, and J. A. Anderson, fireman, were killed, and Frank Thorpe, a brakeman, was seriously injured. Sixty cars heavily loaded caught fire and were consumed.

Doubled on Their Track.

Gunnison, Colo., July 19.—The Marshall Pass train robbers have eluded the posses, and it is now believed they are from 20 to 50 miles ahead of the officers, with a good chance of getting into the fastnesses of the mountains across the border. The robbers are believed to have thrown the officers off their scent by doubling their tracks.

Saves a Woman's Life.

To have given up would have meant death for Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass. For years she had endured untold misery from lung trouble and obstinate cough. "Often," she writes, "I could scarce breathe and sometimes could not speak. All doctors and remedies failed till I used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was completely cured." Sufferers from coughs, colds, throat and lung trouble need this grand remedy, for it never disappoints. Cure is guaranteed by C. E. Anderson, of Anderson's Drug and Book Store, No. 2 Forbes block. Price 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free.

HE LIKES COSHOCTON

Governor Nash Thinks We Have a Pretty City.

HE NOTED THE IMPROVEMENTS

Many Persons Called on Him at the Park Hotel and He Had a Happy Greeting For All.

"Coshocton is a pretty city, and it seems prettier to me every time I come," said Governor Nash to a representative of THE AGE as he sat in the parlor at the Park hotel Friday afternoon.

The governor did not have much time for private conversation. He was busy receiving the folks who came to shake hands and welcome him to Coshocton. They were from every walk in life, and the governor is no respecter of persons, except when it comes to the old boys who wore the blue. He has a hearty hand shake and a pleasant word for all.

"How are you, sir," or "I am glad to know you" are his favorite responses to formal introduction, and he gives them utterance with the same hearty greeting to sturdy workmen and dainty ladies.

The parlor at the Park was dressed in palms and cut flowers and the governor spent the greater part of the hour allotted to the reception shaking hands. He had time, however, to inquire about Coshocton's government and its manufacturing industries and pay the city more than one compliment.

"I like your growing, progressive town," he said. "It is evidence of what we have in Ohio, the right kind of people working to build up and move forward."

Ladies and children came to see him and for each one he had a pleasant word. Once a delegation of young men from a farming community came in and the governor after shaking hands chatted pleasantly for a few minutes regarding the prospects for the year. They were pleased, and if the smile on the governor's face indicated his pleasure he was glad to see them so intelligent and many.

Among his callers was Rev. Mr. Wright, the aged minister who served in the Civil war, but who has been for a number of years poor in health. He was assisted into the room by Mrs. Wright and W. A. Smith. The governor hastily arose from the seat into which he had dropped for a moment, recognizing the loyalty of old age, and stepping forward grasped the hand of the aged chaplain. He assisted him to a chair, and when he discovered he was a veteran he talked with him in his most pleasant and cheerful manner. Governor Nash seemed pleased that his comrade had made such an effort to see him, and when Rev. Mr. Wright left the room the governor assisted him and gave him a cordial goodbye, expressing the sincere wish that his health would improve.

The time had almost come for the party to go to the church, and the Grand Army was drawn up in front of the hotel awaiting his coming.

"There are the Grand Army boys," he said, looking out of the window, and his face showed the pleasure he felt.

Governor Nash rested after the ceremony at the church, and returned on the Grand Army train three to Newark, where he is in camp with a brigade of the National Guard. He has enjoyed the week with the soldiers, and his face shows he has not been wearing a campaign hat all the time.

The governor, by his cordial manner and gentlemanly bearing, added to his friends in Coshocton, and he is assured a hearty welcome when he comes here again.

KILLED HIS HORSES.

William Freese and His Son Injured in The Storm.

MOHAWK, July 19. (Special).—William Freese, one of the best known residents of this section, was badly hurt Friday night.

Mr. Freese and his son, Fay, were hastening home from the wheat field to escape the storm. Freese went to open the gate when lightning struck the line team of young horses killing them instantly.

Mr. Freese was knocked down and seriously hurt. He was unable to get about until he reached the house for a neighbor. He had no recollection of what had happened.

Fay, the son, was paralyzed by the shock, and it was hours before he could walk. Father and son are improving, but it will be some time before they have recovered.

To the Users of White Lily Flour.

There is a circular inserted in every package of White Lily flour packed during the month of July, to assure and attest to the consumers beyond a question of doubt that White Lily flour is made from choice old wheat, no mixture whatever of the new crop.

We will not commence to grind new wheat for the home market before the middle of September, or until such time as we are fully satisfied that the new wheat will make flour equal to that which you are now using. Thank you kindly for past favors. I remain Yours respectfully,

T. J. HANLEY.

AFTER MEAT AND DRINK

Thieves Rob a Butcher Shop and a Saloon.

Hungry and thirsty burglars were at work in Coshocton Friday night. They visited the West butcher shop and the Gross saloon and carried away a little money, a clever and a quantity of liquor.

The places visited are in the business heart of the city, and the work was probably done during the still watches of the night when the street was deserted.

The gang entered the butcher shop by a window in the rear. It contained six panes of glass, four of which were cut out. They rifled the money drawer and got about $3, and carried away with them the proprietor's favorite clever. In exchange they left a corn cutter of the vintage of a quarter of a century ago. It is probably a relic, and Mr. West says they can have it if they will only bring back his clever.

The job at Gross' saloon shows that the same party did the work there. Entering a back room by removing a window they forced the door leading into the bar. Here they broke open drawers and cases evidently hunting for money, but as Gross never leaves money in the saloon over night they were disappointed. They probably carried off a quantity of liquor but that fact will never be known as Gross does not know just what was in the place.

The burglars are believed to have been local talent but there is no clue.

The Same Old Story.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and retold by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies."

Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by C. E. Anderson, Forbes block.

Lincoln, Neb., July 19.—A rainfall of nearly three inches caused another flood in the bottom lands in the west part of the city. There was a three-foot rise in Oak creek, and the first floors of a number of houses are under water, the occupants vacating. All of eastern and central Nebraska received a downpour, the precipitation ranging from an inch and a half to five inches.
